The equity suit of Joseph S. Knight against John W. Brogan, which was begun Saturday, was yesterday discontinued by agreement of the parties. Knight obtained a judgment in addition to a house at Dunmore which the plaintiff occupied and obtained an injunction restraining the work.

HIS FAREWELL SERMON

Rev. Ralph Gilling Preaches to Large Audience at Dunmore Presbyterian Church.

END OF WEEK'S REVIVAL SERVICE

The Assistant of Evangelist B. Fay Mills Delivers a Very Interesting and Convincing Sermon—All Who Have Not Done Their Church Duties Classified as Sinners—He Says Be Kind to One Another.

After a week's earnest and persistent effort, after attaining an unprecedented success in the history of moral work in Dunmore, Rev. Ralph Gilling and his chorister, Mr. Bronson, last evening said farewell to the people among whom he has been laboring so zealously.

Long before the appointed hour the church was crowded and the streets had to be utilized to accommodate the throng. Beside the large choir, which did excellent work during the week, there was in the gallery a choir of fifty children. Around the pulpit was arranged handsome floral decorations.

After reading the parting words found in sixth chapter of Galatians Mr. Gilling began his sermon, which was in two parts, taking for one text these words: "And yet there is room."

"I am glad tonight," said Mr. Gilling, "that there is room for all sinners. All who have not done their church duties, as well as those out of the church, are sinners. Yet there is room for them. No man is so loaded down with sin that he cannot become a child of God, and there is room for all. Friends, take your place as a sinner tonight and pray to Jesus, 'Be merciful to me a sinner.' There is room in the kingdom of God for the man who will take his place as a sinner."

There is room for those who are thirsty for Christ's love. Yes, there is room for the thirsty Christian. Here is the invitation tonight, and there is room for those who are willing to come. You have listened to all pleadings, yet you are here tonight with a heart that step not yet taken. There is room for you if you will only accept.

"What you need tonight is the compelling love of faith. Pin yourself to God and become a Christian tonight. Jesus will blot out all sin and forgive you if you will only come. There is no price to pay because Jesus paid it with his own blood. Are you willing to come? All that is needed on your part is your willingness to come."

At this juncture the Rev. Mr. Gilling made his last appeal to the non-converted and many arose, promising to take Christ as their Master and bid farewell to the follies and sins of this world. The second part of his sermon was devoted to his parting, taking one word for his theme, "Farewell."

"To members of the church I would say: Be perfect, be of one mind, and the Lord's peace shall keep you. Do not trouble your minds about perfection. Do the best you can. Walk in Jesus and your life shall be perfect. We walk perfect in your daily life, so that the world may miss you when you are gone. You will never hear Christ's 'well done' unless you have done well. You may be a model church member, but unless you live according to his commandments, you will never hear those beloved words, 'well done.'"

BE KIND TO BEGINNERS.

"Be kind one to the other. This was the spirit of Jesus Christ. There are new beginners in this congregation who need your blessings in words of kindness and good deeds. If they stumble by the wayside, do not criticize, but give them a kind word. To those who are just beginning a Christian life, I would say, study your Bible. There is not a book in the world to compare with the word of God."

"If you will tonight commence to search the Scriptures you will find in them the words of life. There is no book in the world that can strengthen and bring peace to your souls like this one. Then you must pray. Your heart must be filled with a love for Jesus Christ, and you must pray that you may be strengthened and overcome the adversities of your soul."

MOST JOIN THE CHURCH.

"You must join the church. Every man who has a desire to live up to the religion of Jesus Christ joins the church. It is one of the most important steps. Take upon you this responsibility for Christ. Don't join the building, but join everything that will help the kingdom of God on this earth. The next thing is to abstain from the very appearance of evil. Do not think of the things you must give up for Christ's sake, but of the things that He promises in the hereafter. Many of you are going to ask 'Can we play cards and dance?' Well, maybe you can, but I cannot. I cannot dance and play cards. Throw aside everything that has the appearance of evil. Do not do it. Work for Christ. You will find plenty of ways to put in your time."

After a few earnest words of good by that overflowed with pathos, Mr. Gilling closed.

Nave closed, there has been a more heartfelt parting between teacher and people than was experienced in the Dunmore Presbyterian church last evening. The faces of the large congregation were turned on the speaker until his last eloquent farewell was spoken.

Mr. Gilling leaves for Philadelphia to-night.

CHARTER IS APPLIED FOR.

Philip Sheridan Monument Association Wants Legal Standing.

An application was made to the court yesterday by Attorney J. C. V. Vaughan for a charter for the Philip Sheridan Monument association.

The object of the association is to provide a fund for the erection of a statue in the court house square in this city. The corporation is to exist for five years.

Those who subscribe to the articles of incorporation are: M. H. Griffin, Thomas J. Moore, F. J. Johnson, William Dawson, James J. Dougher, Michael J. Rowan and James C. Vaughan.

WILKES-BARRE IN CHAINS.

A Lascivious Vagrant Working for the Benefit of Lackawanna.

On Tuesday night William Holmes applied to Desk Sergeant Dister for lodgings. When the officer questioned him, he became very insulting and abusive and was locked up.

When brought before Alderman Wright in police court yesterday, the fellow claimed his home was in Wilkes-Barre, and the alderman decided that in that case he should serve on the chain gang.

PLENTY OF NON-SUITS

Three Cases That Did Not Go to a Jury on Account of Faulty Weakness.

WHY ACTIONS WERE BROUGHT

City Failed to Make Out Cases in the Action to Recover From E. F. Boyle and D. J. Campbell on Municipal Liens—A Non-Suit Granted in the Jermyn-Black Case—Morse Cases Will Be Argued Today.

Three non-suits were granted by Judge Archibald yesterday. The first one was in the case of the city of Scranton against E. F. Boyle an action to recover on a municipal lien.

Mr. Boyle owns a property at Pine street and Lee alley and the city sued to collect an assessment of $150 for the cost of laying the Lee alley sewer. Attorneys T. J. Duggan and Connolly & Davis appeared for Mr. Boyle and City Solicitor James H. Torrey and Attorney John P. Albro appeared for the city. Mr. Boyle objects to paying the assessment on the ground that it was not made according to law.

The city failed to get in evidence any paper which showed that Mr. Boyle had been officially assessed for the sewer and in consequence a non-suit was granted on motion of the defendant's attorneys.

ANOTHER NON-SUIT FOR CITY.

The case of the city against D. J. Campbell was next called. The city sought to collect $275 for the same Lee alley sewer. Mr. Campbell's property is at Gibson street and Lee alley, and he objected to paying the assessment because he had previously paid for the Gibson street sewer and had his property connected with it. A non-suit was granted for the same reason as in the Boyle suit.

The suit of John Jermyn against T. A. Black was the next called for trial. Ex-Congressman Lemuel Amerman appeared for Mr. Jermyn and Attorney T. F. Wells for the defendant. On July 1, 1888, Mr. Jermyn rented the store room at 320 Penn avenue to Mr. Black on a two year lease at a rental of $700 a year. After the term expired, Mr. Jermyn refused to renew the lease, and the defendant refused to pay the rent for the year and made a parole agreement for a continuance of the original lease with Mr. Jermyn.

MR. BLACK VACATED.

On Dec. 31, 1890, Mr. Black vacated the premises, and some time later Mr. Jermyn sued to recover $1,033.27 for rent due up to the time of the expiration of the verbal lease. After the testimony for the plaintiff had been taken, the defendant moved for a non-suit and asked for by the defense and granted on the ground that the agreement of lease between the parties was a parole one exceeding three years and hence held at the will of the lessee only.

When court adjourned for the day in the case of Michael Henry against Beamish & Biglin was on trial before Judge Archibald. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney E. C. Newcomb and the defendants by Attorney R. J. Beamish. Mr. Henry says the defendants owe him $344.50 for work done and material furnished for a sewer they were building in Green Ridge in the summer of 1890.

The defendants claim a set off that will balance Mr. Henry's bill against them.

THE MORSE CASES CONTINUED.

The attention of Judge Gunster and a jury in court room No. 2 until 3:40 yesterday afternoon when the testimony closed. Court adjourned until this morning to enable the attorneys to prepare the legal points on which they will ask the court to charge the jury. The argument will be made this morning.

CORNELL CLUBS' ENTERTAINMENT.

They Will Be Graced at the Academy by a Crowded House.

A number of college glee clubs have given entertainments in Scranton during the past few years but none of these organizations have been greeted by so large an audience as will attend the Cornell Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs concert at the Academy of Music tomorrow evening.

The advance sale of seats commenced at the Academy box office yesterday morning, and during the day almost all the lower portion of the house was sold. There are still a number of good seats to be had in the balcony.

Cornellians will arrive in the city from Ithaca during the afternoon, and a number of dinner parties will be given in their honor. The reception that will be tendered the clubs at the Scranton Bicycle club house after the concert will be one of the most brilliant social events of the season, and will be attended by a number of persons from neighboring towns.

Those who will receive are Mrs. George Sanderson, Mrs. James P. Hoise, Mrs. F. E. Platt, Mrs. James P. Dickson, Mrs. E. B. Jermyn and Mrs. James Archibald.

VIEWERS FILE THEIR REPORT.

Damages Allowed to Oxford Street Property Owners.

Attorney T. P. Hoban, John Schwenk and C. W. Kirkpatrick, the viewers who assessed the damages done to property by the grading of Oxford street, presented their report to court yesterday and it was confirmed.

They allowed the following damages: Jacob Pfeiffer, $550; Nelson Steinbeck, $475; Fanny Aswell, $550; Sophie Williams, $250. The fees of the viewers are: T. P. Hoban, $55; C. W. Kirkpatrick, $51.75; John Schwenk, $45.

TEST OF GLASS MACHINE.

A Number of Scranton Stockholders Will Go to Wilmington.

The practical demonstration of the Bonta plate glass rolling machine will be made at Wilmington today at noon.

The embossed glass representing "Lincoln and His Cabinet" will be rolled today, and the smooth plate, rolled on both sides, will be made to-morrow. A large number of Scrantonians will leave on the 5 o'clock a. m. train this morning.

SHOOTING CRAP ON STREETS.

Two Urchins Picked Up for Gambling by the Police.

Edward Feltz and Joseph Pasquales were shooting crap on Penn avenue yesterday when the police surprised them at the fascinating game.

They were arrested and the dice confiscated. When brought before the police magistrate yesterday the youngsters were fined $5 each.

The three pictures, "Telephone Girl," "Good Morning" and "Swinging," offered by The Tribune, now brighten hundreds of homes. The young men in the office are kept busy dealing out these gems of art.

SACRED MUSIC CHOIR

New Musical Organization, with Haydn Evans as Leader, Formed.

THE PURPOSE IT HAS IN VIEW

Will Be a Musical Training School for the Members of Catholic Church Choirs and Those Who Wish to Study Sacred Music—Names of Those Enrolled as Members at Last Night's Meeting.

At College hall last night a choir was organized to rehearse Catholic church music. Nearly 150 young men and women enrolled as members of it. The choir will be under the leadership of Haydn Evans, and be in a measure a training school in music for the members of the Catholic church choir of the city, and its vicinity, and for such others as wish to become members of it.

The masses sung in the Catholic churches are of a high class of music and difficult for the average singer to master without long practice and study.

This choir, it is hoped, will stimulate the study of this sacred music and lead to a more ready mastery of it. Another object is to have a large choir of trained singers that can be called into requisition to render sacred music on special occasions.

THE SINGERS ENROLLED.

A permanent organization of the choir was to have been effected last night, but on account of the absence from the city of Rev. J. A. O'Reilly, who was to have acted as temporary chairman, the work of forming a permanent organization was deferred until next Wednesday night, when rehearsing will begin.

Haydn Evans called the meeting to order and explained the object of the organization. He said that the large choir of the Catholic church choir of the city, and its vicinity, and for such others as wish to become members of it.

AN ESTEEDFOOD IN PITTSBURGH.

One of Professor D. Prothero's Compositions Will Be Sung by Male Choir.

The Cambro-American society of Pittsford is arranging for an esteedfood on May 30, and plans are being laid to eclipse all previous attempts and to have competitions that will attract from far and near. The money prizes to be awarded will vary from $5 to $100.

The big prize of $100 will be given for the best rendering of "The Sea Hag and Its Pearls," by P. S. P. This competition will be for choirs of not less than forty or more than sixty voices.

A prize of $50 will be awarded for "The Spartan Heroes," by D. Prothero.

Scranton. The competition will be for a male choir not to exceed thirty voices. A prize is to be offered for the best rendition of "The Ball of Aberdeen" (Clydean Aerbyfy), arranged by T. J. Davis, of Scranton, to be sung by a female choir led by a female. The programme is not completed, but will be of unusual interest.

HIS BODY GROUND TO JELLY.

Frighful Death of a Thirteen Year Old Slave Picked.

Michael Diskin, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jere Diskin, of Minola, met with a frightful death yesterday afternoon.

He was employed as a slatepicker in Corey's breaker and was walking on a plank above the coals that turn the screens. Suddenly the child was observed to fall and the next instant his little body was between the massive teeth of the breaker.

When he passed through, and it required less time than it does to read this article, the little fellow's remains were unrecognizable.

TRIBUNE OFFICE,

Cor. Penn Ave. and Spruce St.

THAT PARK DONATION

Select Councilman, Cornell the Only Member of the Committee Present.

ITS ADVANTAGE AND OBJECTIONS

Description of Wood Lawn Park. Conditions Under Which It Is to Be Accepted—One Item for Grading to Be Stricken Off—Mr. Cornell Is Opposed to Its Acceptance—Says It Is a Land Speculation.

Select Councilman A. T. Cornell called a meeting of the park committee, of which he is chairman, for yesterday afternoon, but no other member of the committee appeared. In company with the gentleman interested in Wood lawn park, Mr. Cornell visited the site intended for a city park, and a TRIBUNE reporter was also a member of the party. After a tour of inspection Mr. Cornell informed the reporter that he did not look with favor on the project, although he would not try to influence the action of the committee in the matter.

An ordinance has passed the lower branch of the city government directing the mayor to draw up the necessary documents of acceptance, the parties to the second part being G. W. S. W. and M. W. Finn, G. B. Clark and Hanson Carpenter.

WHAT THEY WILL GIVE.

The latter gentlemen own a tract of land beyond Arlington Heights in the Thirteenth ward. The tract comprises about seventeen acres and is 440 feet in width, extending from the Boulevard to Washington avenue. The land intended to be donated for park purposes is right in the center of this tract. It is in three parts, each being elliptical in form. The total area is given as two acres.

Each strip of land is fifty-six feet in width and the intersections are Capous and Wyoming avenues. On either side, extending the entire length, is a driveway twenty-four feet in width. The proprietors in their offer to councils asked that the city bear half the expense of grading, which they assumed would be $1,500.

Yesterday the gentleman informed Mr. Cornell that if the city would accept the park they would bear the entire expense of grading the boulevard.

ADVANTAGES AND OBJECTIONS.

The proprietors of Wood lawn park argue that the proposed park is nothing new. Chicago has its Drexel park built on similar lines, while other cities in the union have the same advantages. They argue that it will be a rest and breathing space for residents of the North End. They point to many large trees that form a natural park in themselves and the tract possesses two springs of good water, one of which has never known to be dry, even in the greatest drought. The water they intend to bring to the surface and form a fountain in the park.

The first objection Mr. Cornell found was the item of $1,500 for grading the boulevard. He contended that it was a land speculation pure and simple, and all expense should be borne by those interested. This the proprietors denied, and to strike the item of $1,500 for sidewalks. His contention is that property owners have to flag in front of their properties in other portions of the city and no exception should be made in this case. Mr. Cornell's last objection is an appropriation of $500 for maintaining the park. He said that the park is too insignificant to be for all time a burden on the city, and while he favors the purchase of parks he will not favor the one that he inspected yesterday.

MCCARTY IS AGAIN AT LIBERTY.

His Pardon Was Received by Warden Gimes Yesterday Afternoon.

James J. McCarty is again a free man.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Warden Michael Gimes received his pardon from Governor Pattison and thirty minutes later McCarty walked out from the county jail a free man with the coveted pardon in his hand. He has been in the county jail since April 29 last, when he was sentenced to a year's imprisonment for a forgery which he persistently claims he never committed.

Last evening McCarty went to his boyhood's home near Honesdale, where he will remain for a time. Before leaving the city he said that his plans for the future he had not determined upon.

After the prisoner had been released Warden Gimes notified the secretary of the commonwealth that the pardon had been given to McCarty.

NEW ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY.

Scrantonians Will Light Parsons, Miner's Mills and Plains.

Alexander Simpson, W. S. Mears, Thomas A. Simpson, A. B. Turner and F. W. Blackley, Scranton capitalists, have applied for a charter to subject the towns of Parsons, Miner's Mills and Plains with electric light. The gentlemen are known to possess the necessary push and mean to bring the matter to a focus at an early date.

It is not decided as yet where the plant will be located, but it is presumed that Miner's Mills will be chosen as being centrally located. Alexander Simpson is a brother of Mrs. D. W. Kimble, of Parsons, whose husband is outside foreman at the Delaware and Hudson Laurel Run mines. He resides at Providence and Thomas W. Simpson is his son. Mr. Mears lives at Hyde Park and the other two gentlemen in Scranton. There is a good field for a plant of this kind and it is expected to be a go.—Wilkes-Barre Leader.

The Browns and the Avon Chorus will be witnessed by a crowded house tonight.

The great people of this country who accomplish so much in the affairs of life have the peculiar fashion of executing whatever may come to them in the line of action on the spot. There is that pile of Harper's, Frank Leslie's, McClure's, Review of Reviews, North American, Century, etc., that you have. They are a joy forever, but not a thing of beauty. Our Mr. Schwecker can transform them so that they will become the brightest and handsomest volumes in your library as soon as you read this will you not get all the numbers together, before they are lost or soiled, and bring them to The Tribune Sunday? A few cents will give you some beautiful books that will take the place of those rough and ragged magazines.
